

CURRICULUM VITAE
ADAM WOO

MBBS (LONDON) FRCA (ENGLAND)
MSc (EDINBURGH) FFPMRCA

Name	Adam K M Woo
Phone	07766 054 378
GMC Reg	4624938 (Full)
Nationality	British
Email	gasmanadam@googlemail.com

EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Fellow of the Faculty of Pain Medicine of the Royal College of Anaesthetists (UK)	2010
Masters in Science, Pain Management University of Edinburgh	2009
Fellow of the Royal College of Anaesthetists UK	2005
MB BS (London) with Distinction University College London Medical School	1999

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

GMC Specialist Register	4624938
Royal College of Anaesthetists	607191
Faculty of Pain Medicine, RCOA
Medical Protection Society	365801

ACADEMIC AWARDS

University of Edinburgh, School of Clinical Sciences

Jansen-Cillag Bursary Prize	2008
Prize for MSc Pain Management Entry Essay	2007

UCL Medical School

Honours in Pathology in MBBS Examinations	1999
Fairweather Prize in Obstetrics and Gynaecology	1999
Certificate of Merit for Outstanding Performance in MBBS Written Finals	1998
Certificate of Merit in Clinical Pharmacology	1998
Filliter, Kingston Fowler and Tuke Prize in Pathology	1997
Certificate of Merit for Outstanding Performance in First Year Clinical Assessment	1997
Blackwell Student Book Prize for Outstanding Performance in First Clinical Year Assessment	1997
Meyerstein Award for Best Overall Performance in Basic Medical Sciences Parts 1 and 2	1996
Distinction in Pharmacology	1996
Distinction in Physiology	1996
Carter Prize for Best Performance in Immunology	1996
Windham Baring Prize in Pathology	1996
Drummond Prize for Best Performance in Biochemistry	1995
Thomas Yeates Prize in Anatomy	1995

A-Levels (University of London Examination Council)

Special Medallion of Excellence for highest mark in Mathematics and second highest mark in Chemistry in world standings, summer 1994. Presented by University of London Examinations Council

CLINICAL AWARDS

Double Clinical Excellence Awards, Kings College Hospital	2019/20
---	---------

NOTABLE POSITIONS

Member of the Court of Examiners, Faculty of Pain, Royal College of Anaesthetists

COURSES AND MEETINGS ATTENDED (RECENT)

- Cambridge Annual Medicolegal Conference Nov 2019
- British Pain Society ASM May 2019
- LSORA Ultrasound Course Nov 2017
- Pain Expert Limited Conference, UK Oct 2016
- Professional Solutions Medicolegal Writing Course 2016
- ASRA Cadaver Ultrasound Course, Chicago June 2016
- Royal College of Anaesthetists, CPD Day Sep 2015
- Paediatric Chronic Pain Network Meeting, Great Ormond Street Nov 2014
- ESRA Annual Congress Sep 2014

MEDICOLEGAL EXPERIENCE

I have done medicolegal work since 2014 and have more than 100 reports in total, about 80% claimant, 15% defendant and 5% Joint. I have been to medicolegal courses run by Pain Expert and Professional Solutions and update myself regularly in this area.

I do most areas of chronic pain relating to personal injury, occupational injury medical/clinical negligence and all other settings.

My scope of practice includes :

- Chronic pain
- Complex Regional Pain Syndrome
- Fibromyalgia
- Neuropathic pain
- Back pain
- Cancer pain
- Psychosocial problems in pain
- Facial pain and Headaches
- Whiplash and Neck pain
- Musculoskeletal pain
- Neuralgia
- Somatoform pain disorders
- Acute pain
- Arthritic pain
- Cancer pain
- Lower back pain
- Disability due to pain in occupational settings
- Pain after Accidents
- Spinal pain
- Post surgical pain
- Post Hernia Surgery
- Breast, Amputation and Thoracic Surgery Pain

CLINICAL SCOPE

I currently hold nine outpatient pain clinics and four theatre-based interventional procedure lists a month. Referrals are complex and varied, coming from rheumatology, neurology, haematology, liver transplant, palliative care and neurosurgery within this tertiary referral hospital. I work within a multidisciplinary pain service with nurse specialists, pain psychologists and specialist pain physiotherapists. I hold joint clinics with neurology specialising in peripheral neuropathic pain, and urologists seeing men with urogenital pain. I also run a joint clinic with haematology emphasising the psychological aspects in sickle cell pain.

Publications (Recent)

Oon Z and Woo A Should thoracic epidurals be routinely sited in patients having cardiac surgery? British Journal of Hospital Medicine, 78(12), p. 730 Dec 2017

Woo A and Sinha M. Should ultrasound or X-rays be used in chronic pain medicine interventions? British Journal of Hospital Medicine 77(5): 314 May 2016

Woo A, Tharakan L and Vargulescu R. Stellate Ganglion Block for Painful Congenital Venous Malformation of the Arm. Pain Practice 2015

Wilson J and Woo A Long term Opioids: Friend or Foe? British Journal of Hospital Medicine 74(5): 298 May 2013

Woo A. Depression and Anxiety in Pain. British Journal of Pain March 2010 vol. 4 no. 1 8-12

Presentations and Teaching (Recent)

Director, Qatari Preceptorship to Kings College Hospital 2020

Invited Speaker, Conference , Adults with Learning Difficulties 2019

GP presentations on neuropathic pain 2019

Physiotherapy facilitated discussions, HCA Hospitals 2019

I have also been invited speaker for all pain conditions at GP practices in Southeast London.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Current Appointment

Consultant in Pain Management and Anaesthesia
Kings College Hospital since Oct 2011

Previous Appointments

Moorfields Eye Hospital May – Aug 2011

Great Ormond Street Hospital Nov – May 2011

Barnet General Hospital Aug – Nov 2010

Royal London Hospital Feb – Aug 2010

Advance Pain Trainee

Pain Management Centre, St Thomas' Hospital Feb 2009 – Jan 2010

Clinical Research Fellow in Pain

National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery and UCL Feb 2008- Jan 2009

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Music plays an integral part of my life. I play the guitar and piano, obtaining Grade 8 qualification from the Royal College of Music for the latter. I also compose music on the keyboard and have experience performing the piano in public. I enjoy opera, ballet, pop music and the arts and culture scene in London. Fitness is important and I swim, play tennis and jog. I have done some 10k runs for charity. I have a passion for travelling and have visited many countries. Highlights include Machu Picchu in Peru, Jordan, Japan and China.